

Amplifhy

Project Amplifhy includes the development of ammonia import terminals and cracking facilities at VTTI's strategic locations in Rotterdam and Antwerp. These facilities are set to play an important role in enabling the large-scale import and conversion of clean ammonia into hydrogen, a key carrier of green energy, to help decarbonize the European economy.