

Introduction

Ethanol/Gasoline Blending – Customs Classification versus Excise Denaturing

When ethanol is blended with gasoline, it is important to distinguish between the concept of denaturing for customs classification purposes and complete denaturing for excise purposes. Although the terminology is similar, the two concepts serve different legal purposes and should not automatically be treated as equivalent.
