

General Procedure: Determination of Preferential Origin

Step 1 - Identify Applicable Agreement

Determine whether a preferential trade agreement exists between the exporting and importing countries.

If such an agreement exists, it provides the basis for preferential tariff treatment.

Step 2 - Determine Tariff Classification

Identify the product's tariff classification at the HS 6- or 8-digit level. The tariff heading determines which Product-Specific Rule (PSR) applies.

Step 3 - Consult the Product-Specific Rule (PSR)

Locate the relevant PSR in the annex to the applicable agreement. Typical PSR formats include:

- Wholly obtained requirement;
- Change in Tariff Heading (CTH);
- Value limitation rule (maximum % of non-originating materials);
- Specific manufacturing process.

Step 4 - Identify and Value Materials

- List all originating and non-originating materials used in production.
- Calculate the ex-works price of the final product.
- Apply the PSR to verify compliance.

Step 5 - Apply Cumulation (if permitted)

Cumulation allows originating materials or processing from another partner country to count as originating.

- Bilateral cumulation: between the two agreement partners.
- Diagonal or full cumulation: only if explicitly allowed (e.g. not in the EU-UK TCA).

Step 6 - Verify Beyond Minimal Operations

Check that the processing carried out exceeds the - minimal operations - defined in the agreement (e.g., simple packaging, mixing, or labelling do not confer origin).

Step 7 - Prepare Proof of Origin

The type of origin document depends on the agreement:

- Statement on Origin (self-certification); or
- Movement Certificate (EUR.1) where applicable.

Step 8 - Record-Keeping and Evidence

Maintain all origin-related documents for at least 3-5 years:

- Supplier declarations;
- Cost breakdowns;
- Production records;
- Tariff classification evidence.

Step 9 - Verification by Customs

Customs authorities may request post-clearance verification. Failure to substantiate origin claims may result in retroactive duty recovery.
